NCERT Solutions for Class 6 English Chapter 5 Culture and Tradition

Here are detailed answers to the NCERT Solutions of Class 6 English Chapter 5 Culture and Tradition from the Poorvi book. Each answer is explained so that students can clearly understand the meaning.

Q 1: Why is India called a land of diversity?

Ans: India is called a land of diversity because people here follow different religions, speak many languages, wear different clothes, and eat different kinds of food. Still, they all live together in peace. This mixture of many cultures in one country makes India special.

Question 2: How do festivals show the unity of India?

Ans: Festivals bring people together. For example, Diwali, Eid, Christmas, and Baisakhi are celebrated by different communities. But people of all religions often join each other's festivals. This shows that India may have many religions, but the spirit of joy and togetherness is the same everywhere.

Q 3: What role do folk dances and songs play in our culture?

Ans: Folk dances and songs are passed from one generation to another. They show the life, beliefs, and feelings of people in different regions. By watching and singing them, we understand our roots better. They also keep old traditions alive and connect us with our ancestors.

Q 4: How do food and clothing tell us about Indian culture?

Ans: Different states have different foods and clothes. For example, rice is common in the south, while wheat is common in the north. Clothes like saree, dhoti, kurta, and salwar kameez are worn in different styles. These differences tell us about the weather, history, and habits of each region.

Q 5: Why is art and craft important for India's tradition?

Ans: Art and craft show the creativity of the people. Pottery, paintings, weaving, and carving are some examples. These crafts are not only beautiful but also useful in daily life. They carry forward the traditional knowledge and skills of our country.
